

Meet RADIUS by CREtelligent

The world's first cloud-based CRE due diligence platform

- WHAT IF the endless qualifying steps you had to take on every opportunity became fewer steps and lived on a single platform?
- WHAT IF you no longer depended on that spreadsheet of "approved vendors" to hunt for someone that could complete your inspection or report by the deadline?
- WHAT IF everything you do became faster, easier, and more accurate?

Environmental:

EnviroPreScreen (EPS) is an automated screening report, completed in under 30-seconds, that identifies regulatory environmental concerns on, or up to 1/8th-mile from a subject property and a risk rating on the subject property.

EnviroPreScreen Advanced is a one step above the EPS report. It provides the aerial maps, risk rating and descriptions, but supplements the EPS with additional regulatory database status information. Completed in under one minute.

EnviroPreScreen Pro Insight is the most comprehensive of the EPS Suite. Our in-house Environmental Professionals evaluate the findings of the EPS Advanced Report, rendering a comprehensive discussion of interpreted risks and recommendations on any next steps. Delivered in under one business day.

A little about us...

What happens when you combine comprehensive data sources, predictive analytics, a robust site reconnaissance network, and experienced due diligence professionals? You get CREtelligent.

Our mission is to power the commercial real estate (CRE) ecosystem as a trusted and leading provider of innovative due diligence solutions, analytics and professional insights.

Founded in 2015, we began serving the CRE industry with environmental due diligence services. Today, we've expanded our services to include all forms of property due diligence including property condition assessments and inspections, valuation services, flood certificates, zoning reports, land surveys and more.

What makes us truly unique is our one-stop order platform RADIUS and its EnviroPreScreen Suite that makes it easy and extremely cost effective to screen properties for environmental concerns.

Our clients include financial institutions, investors, corporations, and government agencies from across the nation.
